Bill Brown, 30-year TV announcer for Astros baseball, recipient of 2024 Sedalia School District Foundation Distinguished Alumni Award

2024 Distinguished Alumni Award recipient Bill Brown Smith-Cotton High School Class of 1965

The Sedalia School District Foundation Alumni Committee is proud to announce Bill Brown as the recipient of the 2024 Distinguished Alumni Award. Brown will be presented the award and speak to members of Smith-Cotton High School class of 2025 at a ceremony on Thursday, September 26, 2024, at 11 a.m. in the Heckart Performing Arts Center. Baseball fans, community members and Smith-Cotton alumni are invited to attend.

Brown is a 1965 graduate of Smith-Cotton High School. During his time at Smith-Cotton he was president of his junior and senior class, a member of the band, Latin Club, Publicity Staff, Student Council, Archives staff and National Honor Society. At 18 years of age Brown landed his first broadcasting job at KDRO radio station covering the news and doing play-by-play for local high school sporting events. In 1969 he graduated from the University of Missouri with a degree in journalism. Brown served in the US Army as a sportscaster/broadcaster in the Armed Forces Vietnam Network in Saigon. After leaving the Army, he went to work at Cincinnati TV station WLWT. In 1976 he earned his first full-time major league broadcasting job as television play-by-play announcer for the World Champion Cincinnati Reds.

In February of 1987 Brown joined the Houston Astros, and for the next 30 seasons was their television broadcaster with play-by-play commentary. Inducted into the Astros Hall of Fame in 2023, his biography on the Astros' Hall of Fame website reads, "For 30 wonderful seasons, Bill Brown served as the primary television voice of the Houston Astros. In that span, he became one of the most popular and well-respected broadcasters in all of baseball. His professionalism and knowledge of the game, along with his powerful voice and relentless preparation, made him one of the top play-by-play men of his generation. Fans grew to appreciate his love and respect for the game and his in-depth knowledge of the Astros players as well as their opponent. Nobody was more prepared to broadcast a game than Bill Brown."

As a 37-year Major League Baseball broadcaster, Brown has been recognized for his professionalism and expert knowledge multiple times over the course of his career. Honors include induction into the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame in 2004, induction into the Houston Astros Media Wall of Honor at Minute Maid Park in 2011 and voted Texas Sportscaster of the Year by the National Sports Media Association in 2013. He was honored by the Houston Astros with a pregame ceremony recognizing 30 seasons with the team in 2016. Brown was inducted into the Smith-Cotton High School Athletic Hall of Fame in 2017.

Brown has authored and co-written several books. “My Baseball Journey: A Sportscaster’s Story”, co-authored with Tim Gregg, documents Brown’s career and personal influences and has key memories of his family, Sedalia, Smith-Cotton, and his teachers. Additional books include “Baseball’s Bizarre Season,” “Houston Astros: Deep in the Heart,” “Breathing Orange Fire: Jose Altuve,” “Houston’s Team Houston’s Title,” “Houston Astros Golden Era,” “Sportscasting 101,” and “Swinging for Glory.”

He is a member of the advisory board at Houston Sight into Sound and has been a volunteer reader for over 24 years. He and his wife Dianne Dugan Brown, who also graduated from Smith-Cotton in 1965, have been involved for over 10 years with the “Salute to our Heroes” scholarship fundraiser with the Cy-Fair Texas Educational Foundation. Bill and Dianne reside outside Houston and have one daughter and three grandchildren.

New scholarship established by Smith-Cotton graduate

Smith-Cotton High School class of 1954 graduate Charlene “Charlee” L. Laudemberger Brown left funds in her estate to establish a new scholarship for Smith-Cotton High School students. The new scholarship, named the Charlene “Charlee” L. Brown Scholarship in her honor, will be available to the class of 2025. It is a general scholarship for students studying any major while attending a community college, four-year college, or university. Students must show financial need.

Charlee was a high school English, journalism, and business teacher in Hudson, Wisconsin. She took pride in being the yearbook advisor. She attained two master’s degrees. After retirement from teaching, she returned to live in Sedalia. When Charlee was a student at Smith-Cotton she was a member of Spiz, student council, National Honor Society and served as an usher and library assistant. She passed away on May 28, 2024.

Memorial donations can be made to the scholarship fund in her honor. Checks should be mailed to the Sedalia School District Foundation, PO Box 2505, Sedalia MO 65302 with “Charlee Brown Scholarship” in the memo line.

Tax-free charitable donations from Required Minimum Distributions

Individual Retirement Arrangement (IRA) owners over age 70½ can transfer up to $100,000 each year to charity tax-free. For a married couple, if both spouses are age 70½ or over when the distributions are made and both have IRAs, each spouse can exclude up to $100,000 for total tax-free distributions of up to $200,000 per year.

These transfers, known as qualified charitable distributions or QCDs, offer eligible older Americans a great way to easily give to charity. For those who are at least 73 years old, QCDs count toward the IRA owner’s required minimum distribution (RMD) for the year.

Any IRA owner who wishes to make a QCD for 2024 should contact their IRA trustee soon so the trustee will have time to complete the transaction before the end of the year.

Normally, distributions from a traditional IRA are taxable when received. With a QCD, however, these distributions become tax-free as long as they’re paid directly from the IRA to an eligible charitable organization. QCDs must be made directly by the trustee of the IRA to the charity. Talk to your IRA trustee, bank, or financial planner about making a QCD to the Sedalia School District Foundation. The Foundation is recognized as a 501(c)(3) charitable corporation. Contact our administrative assistant at schfound@sedaliasdf.org for our federal tax ID number.
